John Thackara

Journalist, writer and design theorist, author of numerous and relevant publications including “Designing In A Complex World” (MIT Press), will conduct a seminar on Relational Sustainability Ecology and Design, looking for new dimensions of contemporary design in relation with the renewed challenges of sustainability.

The seminar will be the opening lecture of the MAs workshop of Integrated Product Design, held by professors John Thackara and Roberta Tassi, tutors Caterina Castiglioni and Efthimia Pantzartzis.
